

Life After High School

FREE Workshops for Youth with Disabilities Ages 15-21, Their Families & Caregivers

Have questions about transition? Wondering what transition is? Is college a good choice for my student? Who can help my student find a job? How do we help students find what they want to do when they graduate?

Life After High School is a series of evening workshops designed to answer all of these questions. These sessions are FREE and there is no registration.

To request any reasonable accommodation you may need in order to fully participate in the training or for interpretation services please leave a message at 303-982-6583 ext. 1 - ten days prior to the training date
