What:    Two Roads Charter School students will perform an innovative and interactive production of “Romeo and Juliet”.

Background:

The innovative and interactive production retains the original “Romeo and Juliet” text, but tosses many theatrical traditions to the side. This production demands that the audience be on their feet, interact with the actors, and change locations to experience the bard’s classic tale. The production features 23 student actors, four adult actors (from the school’s staff and community), a student choreographer, a student dance coach, and nearly a dozen student crew members. Other students from the school have volunteered to sew costumes, to build and paint sets, to create props, and to do hair and makeup. Parent volunteers also have aided with costumes and sets. Admission is $5.00 for students, $7.00 for adults, with a $2.00 discount for wearing a Renaissance costume.
