Slapstick Shakespeare at Two Roads Charter School

When: May 6, 7, 13, and 14, 7:00 p.m.

Where: Two Roads Charter School
7180 Oak St.
Arvada, CO 80004

What: Shakespeare's The Comedy of Errors student production

Background:

Shakespeare's The Comedy of Errors capitalizes on physical comedy and broad (and sometimes bawdy) jokes. This production, directed by Emily Sullivan, is sure to produce rollicking laughter from audiences of all ages and showcases eleven student actors (two of whom alternate in sharing over half a dozen character roles), a student stage manager, and a student technical crew. Student participants range from sixth through twelfth grade.

Two Roads Charter School has become known in the community for high-quality and creative theatrical storytelling. Twice a year, over the course of a weekend, the gymnasium is transformed into a black box theatre. Parent volunteers and students work together to accomplish these massive transformations.

Frequently produced at Shakespeare festivals, this comedy features two sets of twins, separated at birth, unknowingly find themselves exploring the same city limits. Mistaken identities and comical confusion abound.

Admission: $5 for students, $7 for adults
