Why Are We Doing Surveys?

- To understand how to better meet student, educator, and family needs while learning at home
- To see how needs change over time with follow-up surveys
- To improve programs and technology to support learning

Who Responded?

11,259 Students
4,267 Family Members
1,692 Educators
1,344 Teachers
366 School Leaders
46 Central Staff
137 Other Staff

Learning Engagement

Did you or your family engage in schoolwork this week?

- Yes! 99% Families
- 97% Students

The majority of respondents reported engaging in learning by:

- Submitting school assignments
- Completing activities posted online
- Emailing or chatting with a teacher

How is it going?

- 70% of those who took the survey reported that remote learning went well/very well.

How are you feeling learning at home?

- Most students and families said they feel okay, but about 30% said it was not going well or that they were having a hard time.

How much help do students need with schoolwork?

- The majority of students report needing little help. Families said they provided more help to their student. A little more than half of educators said students needed little help.

Should We Continue?

75% of students
87% of families
81% of educators

believe learning at home must continue at this time

Successes of Learning at Home

- Nearly all students and families who answered the survey said they were able to do schoolwork at home
- Most students, parents, and teachers thought learning at home went well
- Nearly everyone agreed that learning at home should continue at this time
- Most students said they reviewed material as well as learned new things

Challenges Experienced by Students & Families

- The survey was only offered online; therefore, all students and families may not have been able to respond
- Some students, families, and teachers said learning at home was not going so well
- Families said it was a challenge to help students with schoolwork
- A very small group of students were having a hard time and wanted to talk to someone about it

Next Steps

- Schools are informed of students who say they are having a hard time and would like to talk to someone about it
- Jeffco will be giving families resources and additional supports to help students with learning at home
- Jeffco will continue to provide professional learning every Monday to support teachers and leaders with teaching online