

This survey was designed to gain an understanding of community sentiment and needs and give an opportunity for feedback on the district's initial thinking and models.

90% of respondents indicated they are either certain or likely to attend in person learning.

There is more support for alternating days rather than alternating weeks if a hybrid schedule is required.

There is support for delaying the start of school until August 24 to allow for additional training.

